

ABSTRACT PANELS

2690.98

A design-forward sconce family, luminous Abstract Panels introduce a sense of fluid artistry to the wall. Two or four undulating, irregular silhouettes are layered together, with light escaping from between each panel for a dimensional glow. Finished in Textured White, these LED-powered wall lights are available in small, medium, and large sizes. Add a sense of organic serenity to baths, hallways, and living spaces with one or multiple.
