HOSHI

580-21-VB

CORBETT

The Hoshi family takes inspiration from a traditional Japanese process of candying persimmons, known as Hoshigaki. Hung from a wooden rod and string, the beloved sweets are reimagined as festive pendants with a nod to Isamu Noguchi's Akari lanterns. In each fixture, a lightweight silk shade is suspended from a T-bar and link chain finished in Vintage Brass. Available as a 1-light pendant in three sizes and as a 3-light chandelier, Hoshi adds character above a kitchen island, dining table, or in an entryway. Part of the Noz Nozawa collection.
